Decrease in liabilities,	$ 288 34

Compared with an increase of the liabilities the preceding year of $2,530 70.

In submitting this report, without reflecting in the least upon our predecessors, we desire to call to the attention of the citizens of the town the fact that at the commencement of the fiscal year of 1895 there was cash in the treasury available for town expenses, about $3,000.00. The sum of $1,500.00 was raised that year, making the total amount available, $4,500 00 At the commencement of this year we had in the treasury available for town expenses, $47.81; the amount raised being the same as last, making the total amount available $1,547.81, or $2,952.21 less than the preceding year.

We would recommend an appropriation of $1,051.00 to pay existing contracts for breaking roads and snowing bridges, and one for $930.00 to pay interest on town bonds to Jan. 1, 1898, leaving the amounts for other purposes to the discretion of the town.

We sincerely hope that our successors will not be hampered as we have been, for lack of funds, to carry on the business of the town as it should be, and our experience the present year compels us to urge upon the voters the necessity of providing against a repetition of such a state of affairs as we found ourselves in during the first half of the fiscal year.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY N. SNELL,

WM. M. WYMAN,

WALTER R. BURNELL,

Selectmen of Conway.

AUDITORS' CERTIFICATE.

Report of School Board.

At the annual meeting of the School District, March 14, 1896, Rev. Wm. B. Allis was chosen a member of the School Board for two years, and Rev. Elisha A. Keep was elected a member for three years.

The appropriations were, $1600 for schools in excess of that required by law; $700 for repairs, of which sum $500 was to be expended upon the new school house at the Center; $41.36 to pay balance due Smart & Whittier on their contract for building school house at the Center.

At the first meeting of the Board for organization, March 19, Mrs. Abbie M. D. Blouin was made chairman, W. B. Allis clerk. Mrs. Blouin was also continued as financial secretary and text book librarian.

When the subject of schools came to be considered, the outlook was anything but encouraging for any school during the spring and summer term. During the past years, expense of the spring term of school had always been met by the Selectmen having authority to hire money for any demands prior to July 1. But the town at their last annual meeting voted against giving the Selectmen this power, which left us utterly helpless. There was due the school district and in the hands of the treasurer, $803 66, and how to manage 18 schools at an average cost of $150 a week was a study.

We finally decided that to be just and fair with our teachers, we would continue a spring term for ten weeks, as usual, and trust that some means would be provided to meet the expenses. Previous to October 31 bills amounting to between $2000 and $2500 were paid from the private pocket book of Mr. H. B. Cotton, the School District Treasurer. We wish here to extend to Mr. Cotton our sincere thanks and gratitude for the sympathy, courtesy and financial aid we have received from him during the year. Our aim, as in the past, has been to provide our schools with the best, in way of instruction, text books and material to work with. Quite a proportion of our schools have had the same instructor as last year, and in these schools, especially, can we see marked improvement, and good work done along the lines laid out by the prescribed course of study. The movement of the schools throughout the town is forward instead of backward; and we feel confident that if our scholars attend school regularly and work when there, they will certainly stand in even rank with pupils in our sister towns.

Our teachers have to a greater or less degree endeavored to instill the spirit of patriotism. Through the earnest efforts of Mrs. W. H. French with the hearty co-operation of teacher and pupils, a fine flag was flung to the breeze, over the South (No. 16) school house on July 3d. Miss Sadie Kennett, teacher in McMillan school, labored hard with her pupils to secure necessary funds with which to purchase a flag for their school. Their efforts were crowned with success, and a flag will float over that school in the spring.

During the summer the unpleasant condition that has existed in East Conway (No. 1) for many years, was made more unpleasant by Mr. Osgood (the owner of adjoining land) fencing in the lot. The lot upon which the school house stood being only 4 rods by 5 rods, and the school numbering about 25 pupils, the play ground was wholly inadequate. The patrons of the school demanded of the School Board the sum of one hundred dollars, which was raised in 1893 to enlarge this lot. We, being unable to purchase a piece of land from Mr. Osgood, to enlarge the lot, took (as the law allows) a piece sufficient to make the lot 8 rods by 17 rods, which includes the original plot. We turned the building so that it fronts the street, and moved it near the center of the lot. Provisions should be made the coming year for clapboarding one side and painting the building outside, and erecting a woodshed and necessary closets. The interior was painted and put into good condition this year. We have, however, been unable to come to any settlement with Mr. Osgood for the land, and that will devolve upon the new Board.

The School Board had been informed that the School District of Conway was indebted to the School District of Bartlett for tuition for one or more scholars for the years 1885 to 1896 inclusive. In 1863 that part of Conway included in the farm property of Isaiah Seavey was, by act of Legislature, set over to Bartlett for school purposes, and their proportion of school money paid to Bartlett yearly until the new law of 1885, since which time nothing had been paid out. Early in the year we made a settlement with the school officers of Bartlett for the time from 1885 to 1896 for $90, and were to pay into their school treasury the amount of school tax as assessed upon that property each year. This tax has not been paid and will have to go to the new Board as arrearage bill No. 2.

North Conway school have not been in better condition for years. The parents have given hearty and unanimous approval of the work of the teachers for the past two terms. The Board is unanimous in thinking that still better results will follow if an Intermediate grade is added, and this is to be done in the near future. But this formation of a new grade brings to a crisis the question of consolidation, involving the schools of Echo Lake, Intervale, Kearsarge and No. 8 in North Conway. There are scholars enough in North Conway to justify the Intermediate grade without considering these other districts. But for several years Intervale has asked for a school, and asked with justice. The education of Echo Lake scholars has cost a dollar a week for each pupil, besides lacking the incentive which comes from a larger school. And at Kearsarge it is the old question whether one teacher can teach all grades from A, B, C, to algebra. The Board therefore recommends this plan, which meets with the approval of all concerned, that the School District accept the offer of the Kearsarge Academy trustees to transfer their property to the town for such a consolidated school. The offer means just this: The trustees will deed to the town a property costing several thousand dollars, with one or two legitimate reservations. The building is substantial, well lighted, and well toward completion, offering accommodations for all who will have to be provided for the next twenty years. It has ample grounds and a central location. Under this plan Echo Lake scholars are transported; Intervale relinquishes a right to a separate school, their scholars being transported by way of Kearsarge, which becomes a primary school, and the older scholars from both Intervale and Kearsarge being given in this central building at North Conway a carefully graded school, each grade being in the care of teachers expert in their special division of work. Should there be a desirability some years to come of merging Kearsarge and McMillan schools also, this building will provide all room necessary for such expansion. The offer is generous, the plan looks toward greater economy and more careful teaching and study. We believe it will commend itself to the hard common-sense of our voters.

In closing, we feel justified in saying that a general improvement has been observable in all the schools of the town during the year. It has been our desire to secure good teachers for all the schools. In this we have been obliged, as a matter of course, to act upon our own judgment and not retain or change teachers on account of the notions of each parent or scholar.

While conscious that many criticisms have been offered, we congratulate ourselves on having had a more than average corps of teachers in the schools during the year. The pupils have been more regular in attendance than in some years past, but the number attending without being absent during the school year is much too small.

As the common schools are the source from which the greater part receive their education, parents should strive to make common schools what it is in their power to help make them, of a higher grade. We must not forget that in no department of public affairs is that "eternal vigilance," which is the price of liberty, more essential than in the care and improvement of our common schools.

The town of Conway can look back with pride to its early settlers, who, among their first efforts in making themselves homes in the wilderness, gave a large place to education. Let us see to it that no less attention be given to these important matters than was given by the fathers.

Respectfully submitted,

ABBIE M. D. BLOUIN,
WILLIAM B. ALLIS,
ELISHA A. KEEP.
